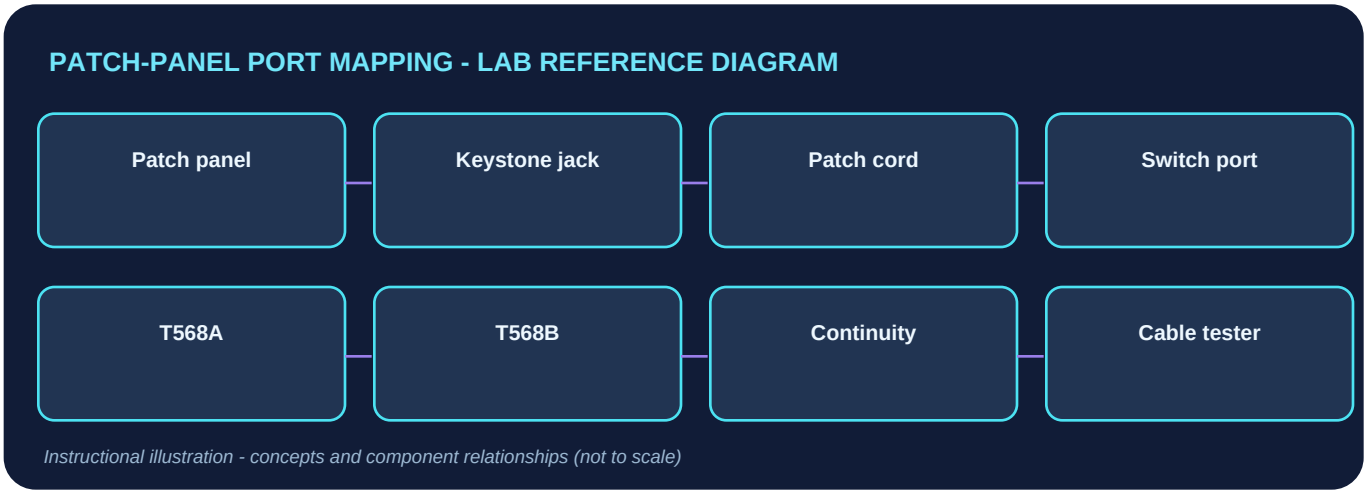
5.2.5 Connect Patch Panel Cables

STUDENT STUDY GUIDE + VOCABULARY + VISUAL REFERENCE

Learning goal

Patch and verify physical network connections.

Reference image



Use the labeled illustration to identify the key components, commands, or checkpoints you will encounter in this lab.

Prepare for the simulation

1. Identify source device, jack and labeled patch port.
2. Use correct patch cord from panel to switch.
3. Maintain consistent termination standards.
4. Check link, port mapping and cable test result.

Troubleshooting and safe practice

• No link: inspect patch cord and switch port status.

• Split pair: reterminate and verify with suitable tester.

5.2.5 | VOCABULARY & REVIEW

Essential vocabulary

Term	Meaning / recognition cue
Patch panel	A key term in patch-panel port mapping; identify its purpose, where it is used, and how to verify it.
Keystone jack	A key term in patch-panel port mapping; identify its purpose, where it is used, and how to verify it.
Patch cord	A key term in patch-panel port mapping; identify its purpose, where it is used, and how to verify it.
Switch port	Physical interface or connection point; verify its intended function and compatibility before use.
T568A	One standard Ethernet twisted-pair termination pinout.
T568B	Alternative Ethernet twisted-pair termination pinout.
Continuity	A key term in patch-panel port mapping; identify its purpose, where it is used, and how to verify it.
Cable tester	Signal connection or output; verify the correct interface, source and operational status.

Knowledge check - answer in your own words

1. Identify two components or commands in the reference diagram and explain what each does.

2. What should you verify before changing or installing hardware, settings, or files in this lab?

3. Choose one listed failure symptom. What is your first safe diagnostic step?

4. How will you prove the task is complete, rather than merely assuming success?

Lab readiness checklist

[ ] I can identify the labeled reference items. [ ] I understand the safety precautions.

[ ] I can explain the vocabulary. [ ] I can verify and document successful results.
